Dear Henry:

I'm writing to ask you to consider a brief stop-over in Taiwan during your planned trip to Asia later this summer. I hope you will take the opportunity to see how much Taiwan has developed as a stable and democratic nation thanks in significant part to your leadership and support in the Congress.

I've been assisting Taiwan since I left the Congress. I know that the Taiwanese people admire you and would welcome the opportunity to thank you in person in Taipei for all you have done to advance our countries' bilateral relations and security alliance.

I hope you are well, and thank you for considering this invitation.

Sincerely,

BOB DOLE

Dear Mr. Speaker:

I am writing to ask that you allow me to introduce you to Ambassador David Lee, Taiwan's representative in Washington. You may recall that, three or so years ago, I brought Ambassador Lee's predecessor, C.J. Chen, to see you in your offices.

Ambassador Lee has been in Washington since shortly before President Bush's second inauguration, and would like to pay a brief courtesy call, with photo opportunity, to make your acquaintance.

I hope you can find a few minutes for us in the coming weeks. Thanks for your consideration.

Sincerely,

BOB DOLE

Montenegro's Future

To the Editor:

Re "For Want of a War Criminal" (editorial, May 5):

In the interest of clarity, readers should know that "Serbia and Montenegro" is a loose union of two separate republics.

On May 21, Montenegro, which I have represented in Washington for several years, will hold a referendum on independence. The ruling coalition government and other pro-independence forces hope that 55 percent or more of the voters will support the referendum and thereby enable Montenegro to be recognized as a sovereign, independent and internationally recognized country.

The union of "Serbia and Montenegro" is responsible only nominally for the arrest and surrender of Ratko Mladic, the former commander of the Bosnian Serb army, to the United Nations war crimes tribunal. In fact and practice, the onus is on Serbia, and Serbia alone, and it is Serbia that must be held accountable.

Montenegro has neither the responsibility nor the power to bring General Mladic to justice. Indeed, the tribunal's chief prosecutor, Carla Del Ponte, has stated that Montenegro is in compliance with the court.

Montenegro has distinguished itself over the course of several years by adopting pro-American and pro-European Union policies on democratization and instituting broad political and economic reforms.
